THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday May 1, to Saturday May 8, 1742.

LONDON, January 16.

ON Thurſday a great Number of Merchants trading to America, gave a handſome Entertainment at Pontack's to Capt. Peter Warren, late Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel, from a juſt Senſe they have of his particular Care of the Trade of thoſe Parts during the Time he was ſtation'd there.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, dated December 21.

'I doubt not you have an Account of the Junction of 'the Spaniſh with the French Fleet, above Malaga. The 'Spaniards, conſiſting of 19 Sail, paſſed the Streights No- 'vember 24, in the Night, Eaſtward; Admiral Haddock 'at the ſame, with his Fleet, (a Liſt of which I have in- 'cloſed) in this Bay, but repairing. The next Morning 'a brisk Eaſt Wind came on, which drove the Spaniards 'ſo far back, that they continued part of two Days in our 'ſight. On the 2d of December, the Admiral ſailed, 'and in a few Days came up with them, in Order of Bat- 'tle (which Order the other likewiſe obſerv'd) and bore 'down upon them. The French Admiral in fight, with '12 Sail, ſtood in between the two Fleets, with a Flag of 'Truce, and repreſented to the Engliſh Admiral, That as 'he was engaged with them in one Expedition, he muſt obey his 'Orders, and could not avoid taking them into his Protection: 'Upon which the Admiral called a Council of War, where- 'in it was reſolved to proceed to Port-Mahone.

A Liſt of the Britiſh Fleet, under the Command of the Hon. Nicholas Haddock, Eſq; Dec. 2, 1741.

The four laſt Ships are laid by the Walls, and the Men put on board other Ships, to ſupply the Places of the Sick and Dead; which required Abundance of Men.

Mr. Robinſon, the Britiſh Miniſter at the Court of Vienna, has communicated ſome Diſpatches which he receiv'd from this Court to the Queen of Bohemia, with which ſhe was ſo well pleaſed as to make him a Preſent of a Gold hilted Sword ſet with Rubies, and a Gold Snuff-box full of Ducats.

And from Florence, that the Britiſh Miniſter had declar'd from this Court, that they ſhould be protected in every Thing that they could wiſh for or deſire.

The King has been pleas'd to appoint the Hon. Henry Compton, Eſq; his Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Portugal, in the room of the Right Hon. the Lord Tyrawley, who deſired to be recall'd: And Abraham Caſtres, Eſq his Majeſty's Conſul General at Lisbon, in the room of Henry Compton, Eſq;

The Dolphin, Capt. Van Ipper, a Dutch Ship, it put into Darmouth. The Captain ſays, he ſpoke with two Spaniſh Privateers in Soundings, who were full of Men, and ſeemed to be very well fitted for the Sea.

We are aſſured, that there are now at Sea four large Privateers from St. Sebaſtian's, and three from Bilboa; beſides ſome from other Ports.

January 19. Yeſterday a Letter came from Madeira, with Advice, that the People of Teneriff, in Revenge for the Loſs of Bagatillo, the famous Spaniſh Privateer, whoſe Ship was ſunk by an Engliſh Privateer, are fitting out two ſtout Veſſels to cruiſe on the Trade from Philadelphia, &c.

January 21. It was ſaid Yeſterday, that Orders are gone to ſeveral Men of War in different Ports, to prepare for going out immediately.

And that Captain Ambroſe, in the Rupert, was gone on a Cruiſe.

Yeſterday the Merchants of London went up to Parliament with their Petitions, and preſented them to both Houſes; when that delivered to the Houſe of Lords was ordered to be heard on Wedneſday the 4th of February; and that to the Houſe of Commons the 28th Inſtant, by themſelves or Council.

January 23. The Letters from Paris by the laſt French Mail aſſure, that the Court of Verſailles had iſſued out Orders to make a conſiderable Augmentation both of Horſe and Foot, as alſo of the Militia in that Kingdom.

Orders are ſent to the ſeveral Yards, belonging to his Majeſty, to fit out with all Expedition, the Men of War ordered for the Sea.

Whereas at a Court of General Seſſions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Aſſize and general Gaol Delivery, holden on the third Wedneſday in March, in the Year of our Lord 1739.

It was Ordered, That all Recognizances and Bailments taken by any Juſtice of the Peace, be returned into the Court the firſt Day of every General Seſſions, before Noon, for that their being kept longer, it may happen, that Felons and other Offenders may eſcape Puniſhment, and the Witneſſes and Parties be wearied out with Delays and Attendance; and that the Juſtices of the Peace who are faulty herein be fined according to the Stat. 1ſt & 2d Ph. and Mar Cap 13. and 2d & 3d Ph & Mar. Cap. 10.

If the Offenders appear not on their Recognizances the firſt or ſecond Day of the Court, the Default to be recorded and the Recognizance to be forfeited. Nevertheleſs, Proceſſes or Warrants, as the Caſe ſhall require, to go out againſt them and their Bail; ſo likewiſe, as to thoſe who are bound to give Evidence, that if poſſible the Buſineſs be not deferred to another Court, in which Time the Proſecutors or Witneſſes may die or be taken off.

That all Juſtices of the Peace do take Examinations both of the Felons without Oath, and the Informers and Witneſſes againſt them upon Oath, in Writing, on or before they commit the Offenders to Goal, and to certify the ſame the firſt Day of the Seſſions, or elſe to be fined according to the Statutes of Philip & Mary before-mentioned.

That no Priſoner for Felony be diſcharged in the Interval of the General Seſſions, unleſs it be upon good Bail taken, the Warrant or Mittimus to the Goaler to keep until they are delivered according to Law, nor any Bail or Recognizance for Appearance to be given up or withdrawn by the Juſtice of the Peace after the ſame is taken, but be returned and certified to the Court of General Seſſions, and the Offender whether Juſtice of the Peace or Goaler to be ſeverely proceeded againſt.

If any Juſtice of the Peace ſhall take Bail where he ought not, or wittingly or willingly take inſufficient Bail, and the Party appear not, the Juſtice not only to be proceeded againſt according to Law, but likewiſe to be complained of to the Governor, that he may be turned out of his Commiſſion.

That when any Juſtice of the Peace ſhall commit to Priſon, or bind over any Perſon to appear at the next General Seſſions, for any Crime or Offence whatſoever, ſuch Juſtice ſhall at the ſame time bind over by Recognizance the Proſecutor or Party injur'd, and alſo the Witneſſes who can prove the Offence, to appear at the next General Seſſions and to proſecute or give Evidence againſt the Offender. And in Caſe the Offender ſhall be poſitively and expreſsly charged on Oath with Felony, ſuch Recognizance ſhall be taken from the Proſecutor or Party injur'd, before any Warrant ſhall be iſſued againſt the Offender; and if any of the Juſtices ſhall be negligent or remiſs, they ſhall be proceeded againſt according to Law.

If any Juſtice of the Peace ſhall bind over any Perſon to keep the Peace, and be of good Behaviour, and to appear at the General Seſſions, if the Parties agree in the mean Time, and the Party who hath required Surety of the Peace ſhall releaſe the ſame before the ſaid Juſtice, or any other Juſtice of the Peace, the Record of ſuch Recognizance and Releaſe ſhall be certified and returned to the next General Seſſions.

AND it was further ORDERED, that the above Orders ſhould be inſerted in the publick Gazette.

AND WHEREAS notwithſtanding ſuch publick Notice was given, very little Regard has been had to the ſame, and the Miſchiefs which were intended to be remedied by thoſe Orders, ſtill remain. It has been therefore thought proper to give this farther Notice, that no Perſon for the future may pretend Ignorance, or fail in their Duty upon the Peril that will enſue.

By Order of the Court,
JAMES WEDDERBURN,
Clerk of the Crown and Peace.

Numb. 424.

VIENNA, January 3.

ON Monday the first of this Month, two Couriers arrived one after the other, with the agreeable News that Marshal Khevenhuller had passed the River of Ens, and driven the Enemy from the Town of that Name, and from that of Steyr also. As the French and Bavarians had the said River before them, besides an Intrenchment, and a Line drawn between the two Towns above mention'd, Marshal Khevenhuller made a Feint of attacking them on the side of Mathausen, during which Time M. Mercy dislodg'd them from Steyr, after having kill'd and made Prisoners a great Number of them; and at the same Time the Town of Ens was taken The Day after, being the 31st of December, a Batallion of French which pretended to make some Resistance on the Banks of the River Ens, was cut to Pieces Messl. de Segur and Minucci, who commanded a Body of 10,000 French and Bavarians, having retired with Precipitation, Marshal Khevenhuller detach'd the Hussars after them, who slew and took Prisoners a great Number. The Boors having also taken Arms, cut all they met to Pieces, and the Marshal is in full march to give the Enemy Battle. They attempted to save the heavy Baggage by the Danube, but the greatest part of it had been taken by the Hussars, a few of whom have been kill'd, which is hitherto the only Loss on our Side. From Bohemia we are inform'd, that Four Companies of French Grenadiers were put to the Sword by the Hungarian Troops call'd Portalistes. 300 of the French Horse having run away at the first Onset This Detachment was advanced to reconnoitre the Great Duke's Army, who took 200 Prisoners at Wodnian. From the Army of Mr. de Lobkowitz there is Advice, that M. de Chatillon, a French Brigadier, had fallen into the Hands of Caroli's Hussars, who, after killing 100 of his Men, took him Prisoner himself, with his Son, four other Officers, and 100 private Soldiers.

Vienna, January 6 The Enemy commanded by M. de Segur, the Prince of Tingry, my Lord Clare, and M. de Minucci, made a Feint at first as if they intended to retreat on the side of Wels and Lampach, but they threw themselves into Lintz, where, together with the Garrison, they make a Body of 10,000 Men, and are so block'd up by Marshal Khevenhuller, that being destitute of Provisions, and cut off from all Assistance on every side, that they have already actually offer'd to capitulate, and to evacuate all the Upper Austria, upon Condition of having a free Passage, and the Military Honours allowed them; but Marshal Khevenhuller insists, that they shall either surrender themselves Prisoners of War, or engage to serve no more against the Queen during the Continuance of the present War. General Bernes has seiz'd the great Magazine that the Enemy had at Cremsmunster, where he made two Companies of Bavarian Cuirassiers Prisoners of War; and General Bernclau has got Possession of the Salt Works at Gmund, with the Towns of Hallstadt and Ischel, and taken Prisoners 400 Men that were in Garrison. Mathausen has likewise surrender'd at Discretion.

LONDON, January 26.

We are assured from Paris, that the Princes of the Blood have ordered their Field Equipage to be got ready by the beginning of March; and that the Dragoons and Cuirassiers are ordered to be augmented with the usual Recruits

His Majesty's Ship the Diamond of Forty Guns, lately rebuilt, is ordered to be mann'd and victuall'd with all Expedition for the West-Indies.

A large Quantity of Sea Provisions, Flesh and Dry, by Order of the Admiralty, are shipping in the River for the Service of the Men of War at Plymouth: Their Provisions in ordinary they are supplied with from the victualling Store-houses at the said Port.

January 28. His Majesty's Ships the Winchester of 50 Guns, the Liverpoole and Hastings of 40 Guns each, are all sail'd for Madeira, at which Place they are station'd, to protect the Trade of that Island from the Insults of the Spanish Privateers that are fitting out at the Canaries

CHARLES-TOWN, May 8.

By a Letter dated at Frederica in Georgia the 4th of April last, we are inform'd, that the Prize some Time ago brought in there was not taken by Capt. Dunbar but by Capt. William Morgin who commanded the General's Privateer, for that Capt. Dunbar (who was but a Land Officer) neither did, nor knew how to give Orders at Sea. The Cargo of the aforesaid Prize has been apprais'd only at 4000 £. mounted eight Carriage Guns (three Pounders) and 6 Swivels when taken, and had been a Spanish Privateer (as mention'd in a former Gazette) when she mounted 12 Carriage and 22 Swivel Guns.

Sunday last arrived here Capt. John Jenny from Madeira, and brought Advice, that one of his Majesty's Ships commanded by Captain Long, had taken and brought in there as Prize a large Ostender bound for Teneriffe, and laden with Bale Goods, so that in all Probability she will turn out a rich Prize. Capt. Long was going to send the Prize to Antigua in order to be condemn'd.

Extract of a Letter from a credible Gentleman in Bristol to his Friend at Charles-Town, dated the 12*th of* March last.

' ---- Admiral Haddock has taken three of ' the Spanish Transport-Ships, and two of our ' Men of War have taken four Spanish Privateers. This News is not yet publish'd, but ' is Matter of Fact. ---- '
